

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE STATE OF OREGON
FOR THE COUNTY OF LANE

In re Judicial Dissolution of

Zadeh Kicks LLC dba Zadeh Kicks,
the Petitioner.

Case No.

ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER

Based on the Petition for Voluntary Dissolution Under Court Supervision and Appointment of Receiver filed on May 19, 2022 (the "Petition") on behalf of the above-captioned Oregon entity subject to judicial dissolution by this Court ("the Petitioner"), by and through counsel appearing as well as testimony from Michael Malekzadeh before the Court on May 20, 2022, the Court makes such FINDINGS and orders the appointment of a receiver as provided herein:

FINDINGS

- A. After consideration of the Petition and based on the need for independent oversight and management over the assets of the Petitioner, and in light of the potential claims of the Petitioner's customers, creditors and investors to such assets, it is not reasonably practicable or possible for the Petitioner to carry on its business without judicial involvement.
- B. The judicial dissolution and wind-up of affairs by the Court of the Petitioner under ORS 63.661 and 63.637(3) is appropriate and warranted.
- C. The Court requires and finds cause for appointment of a receiver to manage and report on the wind-up and dissolution process of the Petitioner.

1 D. Appointment of a receiver for such purposes is appropriate under ORS 63.664(3),
2 ORS 37.060(1) and based on this Court's inherent equitable powers, and as provided
3 under ORCP 80B.

4 E. The appointment of a receiver is reasonably necessary, based on the cause shown, and 5 other remedies either are not available or are inadequate.

6 F. David P. Stapleton (the "Receiver") is a professional fiduciary, is not interested in this
7 action or in the Petitioner, and is competent and qualified to act as a general receiver
8 for the Petitioner.

9 G. Good and sufficient grounds for appointment of a receiver exist pursuant to Oregon
10 law in order to (1) prevent dissipation of the assets of the Petitioner to the detriment
11 of the creditors, customers, and investors therein; (2) evaluate and report to the Court
12 and interested parties regarding the assets of the Petitioner and oversee an orderly
13 administration and liquidation of such assets to maximize return to the above; (3)
14 evaluate and report to the Court and interested parties regarding claims and interests 15 of, and then proposed distributions to, creditors, customers, and investors of the 16 Petitioner on an equitable basis; and (4) otherwise oversee the wind-up and dissolution
17 of the Petitioner in accordance with Oregon law, therefore it is hereby

18 H. Michael Malekzadeh having waived his right to hearing and consented to the appointment.

19 ORDERED that the Petition is GRANTED.

20 It is further ORDERED as follows:

- 21 1. Appointment of Receiver. David P. Stapleton is appointed as a general receiver and

24 and intangible personal property, interest, claims, and other assets of any nature –
25 including rents, profits, and all other proceeds thereof (the "Assets") of the Petitioner.
26 The Assets so subject to the receivership of the Petitioner shall be collectively referred

- 6       14.   Payments of Compensation. The Receiver is authorized to make payment for his 7       fees and costs and for the fees and costs of his professionals on a periodic basis, but

9       ORS 37.310 and as follows:
- 10      a.   The Receiver shall file a Notice of Compensation of Professional, which shall 11      describe the time spent, and the billing rates of the Receiver and any other 12      professional person who performed work to be compensated, a description of the 14      requested. The Notice shall indicate that unless objections to the proposed 15      compensation are filed with the Court within 10 days, the Receiver may make the 16      payments requested in the compensation notice. If an objection is filed to the 17      proposed compensation, the Receiver or professional whose compensation is 18      affected may request the Court to hold a hearing on the objection on five days'

19      notice to each person or entity that filed an objection thereto.
- 20      b.   If no party in interest objects to such payments or portions of such payments within

22      deemed approved as being fully and finally earned without further order or leave
23      of Court and the Receiver shall pay himself and all other professionals per the 24      Notice. If an objection is filed to the proposed compensation, the Receiver or 25      professional whose compensation is affected may request the Court to hold a 26      hearing on the objection on five days' notice to each person or entity that filed an objection thereto.

c. If any party wishes to object to such payment or portion thereof as disclosed in the Notice, such party shall notify the Receiver and the above-referenced parties of the nature of the objection within the objection period stated above. If the Receiver or affected professionals cannot consensually resolve the dispute or if the dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days of the date of such objection, the objecting party may file a motion with the Court to resolve the objection.

Any loss, cost, damage, or expense suffered or incurred by the Receiver as a result of any claim, suit, action or other demand or proceeding brought against Receiver or any of its employees in connection with its performance as Receiver which is not caused by Receiver's gross negligence, recklessness, willful misconduct or fraudulent behavior will be solely an expense of the Receivership Estate and not of the Receiver.

16. Initial Notice to Creditors and Other Interested Persons. Pursuant to ORS 37.330, the Receiver shall issue an initial notice to creditors and other interested persons within 30 days after the Receiver's appointment.

17. Control of Mail. The Receiver may issue demand upon the U.S. Postal service to grant the Receiver exclusive possession and control of mail including postal boxes as may have been used by the Petitioner and may direct that certain mail related to the Petitioner, the Operations, the Assets, or in any manner relating to any of the foregoing, be redirected to the Receiver.

1       18.   Insurance Coverage. The Receiver shall determine upon taking possession of the 2       Assets whether in the Receiver's judgment, there is sufficient insurance coverage.
 3       With respect to any insurance coverage in existence or obtained, the Receiver shall be 4       named as an additional insured on the policies for the period of the receivership. If 5       sufficient insurance coverage does not exist, the Receiver shall procure sufficient all-
 6       risk and liability insurance on the Assets, provided, however, that if the Receiver does
 7       not have sufficient funds to do so, the Receiver shall seek instructions from the Court
 8       with regard to adequately insuring any such Assets. The Receiver shall not be 9       responsible for claims arising from the lack of procurement or inability to obtain 10      insurance.

11      19.   Litigation and Settlement of Claims. The Receiver is authorized but not required to 12      respond to and defend any actions brought against the Petitioner relating to the 13      Receivership Estate. Additionally, the Receiver is authorized but not required to take 14      all actions necessary to protect the Petitioner's interests or rights or to collect any 15      debts owed to or claims held by the Petitioner relating to the Receivership Estate,
 16      including, if necessary, commencing any legal proceeding, arbitration or mediation,
 17      to protect such interests or recover such funds or claims, including, without limitation,
 18      collection, claim and delivery, fraudulent transfer, or breach of contract actions. The 19      Receiver is authorized but not required to settle or compromise any such claims, if 20      such settlement or compromise is, in the Receiver's business judgment, in the best
 21      interests of the Receivership Estate. Any settlement shall be noticed as set forth in 22      ORCP 80, indicating that unless objections to the proposed settlement are filed with 23      the Court within 20 days, the Receiver may settle the claim as proposed, without 24      further notice or hearing.

25   ///

26   ///

1       20.   Termination. The receivership shall not be terminated, and the rights and obligations
2       of the parties subject to this Order shall remain in full force, until this Court approves
3       the Receiver's final report or until the Court enters an order terminating the 4       receivership, after such notice and opportunity for a hearing as this Court finds to be 5       appropriate under the circumstances.

6       21.   Best Efforts/Further Construction. The Court and all parties to this Order
7       acknowledge the Receiver's ability to perform his duties under this Order may be 8       limited by various factors, including but not limited to Receiver's limited access to 9       information. The Court therefore requires only Receiver's best efforts to comply with 10      the duties set forth in this Order, and the Receiver may at any time apply to this Court
11      for further or other instructions, or for a modification of this Order, or for further
12      powers necessary to enable the Receiver properly to perform his duties, or for a 13      termination of the Receiver's appointment.

14      22.   Discharge/Final Report. Upon distribution or disposition of all property of the 15      Receivership Estate, or the completion of the Receiver's duties with respect to the 16      Assets, the Receiver shall move the Court to be discharged. As provided in ORS
17      37.410, the Receiver shall file a final report of the Receivership Estate, which shall be 18      annexed to the petition for discharge and filed with the Court. Upon approval of the 19      final report, after such notice and opportunity for a hearing as this Court finds to be 20      appropriate under the circumstances, the Court shall discharge the Receiver. The 21      Receiver's discharge releases the Receiver from any further duties and responsibilities
22      as receiver under Oregon law.

23    ///

24    ///

25    ///

23. Further Orders As Needed. The Receiver or any party may at any time apply to the Court for any further or other instructions or orders and for further powers necessary to enable or require the Receiver to perform his duties, including but not limited to application by the Receiver for power to sell, transfer or convey the Assets, in whole or in part.
